DEFENDANT: Curt Russell Cannamela
CASE NUMBER: 3:17CR00219-001; 3:18-cr-00006

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender assessment and treatment, including but not limited to polygraph examinations, recommended by the treatment provider and as recommended by an appropriate provider contracted per the guidelines and procedures promulgated by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The defendant shall contribute to the cost as determined by the U.S. Probation Office.

Sex Offender Registration

2. The defendant will register as a sex offender with the appropriate authorities of any state in which he resides, is employed, or attends school, in compliance with 18 U.S.C. § 2250(a).

3. The defendant shall not consume any alcoholic beverages.

4. The defendant's residence and employment shall be preapproved by the supervising probation officer.

Restricted Contact with Minors

5. The defendant shall not associate with children under the age of 18 nor frequent, volunteer, or work at places where children congregate (e.g., playgrounds, parks, malls, day-care centers, or schools) unless approved by the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall have no contact with any identified victims in the child pornography the defendant collected.

6. The defendant shall not possess, view, listen, or obtain any form of sexually stimulating material or sexually oriented material. The defendant shall not go to any adult entertainment establishment or other similar venues. The defendant shall not possess or use a device capable of creating pictures or video without the prior permission of the supervising probation officer.

7. The defendant shall not rent or use a post office box or storage facility without permission from the supervising probation officer. Any post office or storage facility would be subject to the Search and Seizure Clause.

Computer Restrictions

8. The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or any device with access to any "on-line computer service" at any location (including place of employment) without the prior written approval of the supervising probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private network or email system.

9. The defendant shall consent to the U.S. Probation Officer conducting unannounced examinations of the defendant's computer system(s) and any computer(s) to which the defendant has access. Examination of the computer system(s) includes internal/external storage devices, which may include retrieval and copying of all memory from hardware/software and/or removal of such system(s) for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection. The defendant will consent to having installed on the defendant's computer(s), any hardware/software to monitor computer use or prevent access to particular materials. The defendant will further consent to periodic inspection of any such installed hardware/software to ensure it is functioning properly. The defendant shall pay the cost of computer monitoring at the prevailing rate according to ability as determined by the supervising probation officer.

10. The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about the defendant's entire computer system (hardware/software) and internal/external storage devices, all passwords used by the defendant, and will abide by all rules regarding computer use and restrictions as provided by the U.S. Probation Office.

11. The defendant shall submit to his or her person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release, or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any supervising probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions, as permitted by 18 U.S.C. § 3563(b)(23).

12. The defendant shall participate in a mental health program as directed by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall pay all or part of the cost of mental health treatment if the United States Probation Office determines the defendant has the financial ability to do so or has appropriate insurance coverage to pay for such treatment.

13. The defendant shall furnish all financial records, including, without limitation, earnings records and tax returns, to the United States Probation Office upon request.
